ACM Technologies, Inc. Announces the Acquisition of Denver-Based RTI, LLC

Cost savings passed to customers with the increase in inkjet inventory

Corona, CA (December 19, 2022) – ACM Technologies Inc, a leading distributor of office equipment and supplies, is pleased to announce the acquisition of RTI, LLC, a leading wholesale distributor specializing in compatible and remanufactured inkjet cartridges. This acquisition comes shortly after ACM Technologies acquired Royal Imaging International making the company one of the fastest-growing in the imaging supplies industry.

“We are excited about bringing RTI, LLC to our team. We are continuously in search of new products and offerings that can drive increased sales growth and profitability for our customers,” stated Ben Lin, president, ACM Technologies. “With the addition of RTI, LLC, we believe we can offer the most complete lineup of compatible and remanufactured inkjet cartridges in the industry.”

With the acquisition of RTI, LLC, ACM Technologies will offer a substantial increase in inkjet SKUs including specialty products such as wide format and postal inks as well as an increase in desktop and business inkjet products. The combined purchasing power of the two entities will also provide significant economies of scale and cost savings for its customers.

“We are excited to join ACM Technologies. The combination of RTI’s expertise in the inkjet industry and ACM’s priority in growing the inkjet segment will translate into an increased product offering at substantial savings to its customers,” stated Marcel Kunz, president, RTI, LLC.
